Dan Mariaschin
Executive Vice President of B'nai B'rith International

Daniel S. Mariaschin

has spent nearly all of his professional life working on behalf of Jewish organizations. As the Executive Vice President of B’nai B’rith International, the organizations top executive officer, he directs and supervises B’nai B’rith programs, activities, and staff in the more than 50 countries where B’nai B’rith is organized. Mr. Mariaschin also serves as director of B’nai B’rith’s Center for Human Rights and Public Policy. In that capacity, he presents B’nai B’rith’s perspective to a variety of audiences, including the U.S. Congress and the media, and coordinates the center’s programs and policies on issues of concern to the Jewish community.

In the United States and abroad, Mr. Mariaschin has met with countless heads of state, prime ministers, foreign ministers, opposition leaders, influential members of the media, and clerical leaders. Each time, his goal has been to advance human rights, help protect the rights of Jewish communities worldwide, and promote better relations with the state of Israel. He will be joining us following a trip to Israel and a meeting with the United Nations Council.
